Summary for the 3rd Quarter of the Year Ending March 31,2016

Nikon
Sales decreased 18.2 billion yen and operating income increased 800 million yen compared from the $3^{\text {rd }}$ quarter last year. For three quarters total, sales maintained the same level and operating income improved 2.3 billion yen, year on year.

Precision Equipment Business

-Thanks to higher sales volume of FPD lithography systems, both sales and operating income increased quarter on quarter.

- For three quarters total, as sales increased, the substantial improvement was booked for the operating income year on year.
Imaging Products Business
- Both sales and operating income decreased, year on year, for the $3^{\text {rd }}$ quarter and three quarters total.
- Digital SLR cameras and interchangeable lenses fell short of the planned sales volume.

However, because of price hikes and SG\&A expenses reduction, the operating income ratio in the $3^{\text {rd }}$ quarter posted $11.5 \%$, which exceeded the previous quarter result.
Instruments Business

- Sales increased, year on year, for the $3^{\text {rd }}$ quarter and three quarters total.
- Positive operating income was ensured for the $3^{\text {rd }}$ quarter as well.

Summary of Estimation for the Year Ending March 31, 2016

The forecasts for Precision Equipment Business and Imaging Products Business are revised. The whole company sales forecast is lowered by 20 billion yen while each income forecasts remain unchanged.

Precision Equipment Business

- After the sales volume forecast for ArF immersion scanners is revised, forecasts for sales and operating income are downgraded by 10 billion yen and 3 billion yen, respectively.

Imaging Products Business

- Sales forecast is downwardly revised by 10 billion yen as a result of the revised market forecast and because of the postponement of new D500 launch. However, operating income forecast is pushed up by 3 billion yen due to the $3^{\text {rd }}$ quarter result as well as the expenses reduction effort in the $4^{\text {th }}$ quarter.

Instruments Business & Medical Business

- The full year forecasts are unchanged.

Planned annual cash dividend per share: 16 yen
The $4^{\text {th }}$ quarter exchange rates are assumed 115 yen to US dollar and 130 yen to Euro, no changes as before.

* The latest forecast is the one announced on November 6, 2015.
